Housing Information
Sciences Po, Paris, Spring 2011-12

Students on the Sciences Po program are responsible for finding their own housing in Paris.

Websites to Aid Your Housing Search: It is strongly recommended that students secure their housing before departing for their program.* The websites below are examples of tools you can use in your housing search.

*Be sure to read the “Tips for renting in Paris” document in your Pre-departure Checklist before beginning your housing search. If you arrange permanent housing before your departure, plan to move directly into your housing on or before the official EAP arrival date of January 5.

For any questions about leases, neighborhoods, CAF, etc., or if you would like someone to review any apartment (ad, website, lease) you may be considering, contact the UC Paris Study Center at center@ucparis.fr.

Temporary Housing:

Many students will need temporary housing during the first few weeks of the program while they look for more permanent apartments. There are a limited number of single-occupancy student dorms available for short-term rental through ACCENT International in a residence hall near the UC Study Center (about a 10-15 minute metro ride from Sciences Po). You may rent a room for the first week of the program (January 5-12, 2012) for $450, with the option to extend your stay on a weekly basis for 300 euros/week, up to a maximum of three weeks total. Each apartment is furnished and has its own bathroom, kitchenette, and internet. Students will be accommodated on a space-available basis until the application/payment deadline, November 8, 2011.

If you are interested in this temporary housing option, complete the ACCENT Temporary Housing Application found in your Pre-departure Checklist and mail the application, along with your $450 payment, directly to ACCENT International (address provided on forms) so they arrive by November 8, 2011. The optional 300 euro payments for additional weeks may be paid on-site in Paris. For questions, please contact Jade Stone at jade.stone@accentintl.com or (415) 835-3749.
