Housing Information
Sciences Po, Paris, Year 2011-12

Students on the Sciences Po program are responsible for finding their own housing in Paris.

Websites to Aid Your Housing Search: It is strongly recommended that students secure their housing before departing for their program.* The websites below are examples of tools you can use in your housing search.

*If you arrange permanent housing before your departure, plan to move directly into your housing on or before the official EAP arrival date of August 21st.

Temporary Housing:
Many students, however, will need temporary housing during the first month while they look for more permanent apartments. Past UCEAP students have used the Cité Internationale for temporary housing. Depending on the level of comfort you choose for this accommodation, the rent will be from 560 to 650 euro.

HOWEVER, if you choose to stay in the Cité Internationale, there will be no refund if you find housing prior to the month’s end. That means that if you find your permanent housing before the end of September, you will be expected to pay out the full rent. This is non-negotiable and no exceptions will be made. Sciences Po will contact you directly about temporary housing at Cité Internationale, and you will pay them directly for this. This housing option is on a first-come, first-served basis, so do act quickly.
