Embassy If Further i ass When Arrival in Brisbane your own I V
If you are a non U online For many students D take the initiative to do a little research on your own find out wh period recreational travel or other personal reasons If you are only staying the length of the program… If your travel agent does this for you, be sure to show the agent your passport. The agent will need to enter your passport details into the computer reservation system. If you are traveling in Australia prior to the program or after it is over… If you know now that you are staying in Australia longer than the duration of the program, whether for recreational travel or other personal reasons, you will need a longer visa than the ETA to cover the additional period beyond your MBTE program in Queensland. As this is something you need to arrange for yourself, please take the initiative to do a little research on your own find out what type of visa is appropriate for you. Visit the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) or call 613 216 7603. For many students the Visitor Visa, Subclass 600, Tourist Stream may be a good suggestion. This visa offers the choice of a 3, 6, or 12 month stay (you will indicate the desired duration when you apply). U.S. citizens can apply online for this visa. Currently, the application fee for the Subclass 600 Tourist Visa is $AU115.00 (that’s about US$105.00 at today’s exchange rate). If you are a non-U.S. Citizen… Visa regulations differ by country of citizenship. You must visit the website for the Australian Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) as well as the Australian Embassy in Washington D.C. Do some research on your own to determine if there are any special entry requirements that apply to your country of citizenship. Arrival in Brisbane When you arrive at the airport you will be asked to provide your residential address. You will receive your housing assignment and address from the on-site staff in Queensland just prior to your departure, so carry this information with you and be ready to present it upon arrival. Further Questions? If you still have visa questions after searching the above websites, please direct them to the Australian Embassy in Washington DC:
Revised July 15, 2013